LOUGEN, VALENTI, BOOKBINDER & WEINTRAUB, LLP – CPA
Martin C Lougen

Each day our clients work hard to operate successful businesses. They take pride in their work, and they make sacrifices to meet their strategic goals.

We appreciate this hard work because we have lived it. We have walked many miles in our clients' shoes. We share their passion for excellence and commitment to quality.

Welcome to Lougen, Valenti, Bookbinder & Weintraub, LLP, providing high-caliber accounting, tax and consulting services. At LVBW we understand both the pressure and the pleasure of running a successful business. Like our clients, we know what it means to do business in a competitive marketplace. And we use our collective expertise and insight to our clients' benefit. For us, the bottom line is about more than numbers on a page. Our clients' success is the bottom line.

Of course, each client measures success in a different way. Success may be found in generating sales or achieving a new quality of life. Success may come from the profitable sale of a business or the smooth transfer to the next generation of owners. No matter how you define success, we can help you achieve it.

Let us show you how our experience and service can benefit your business. Visit our website at www.lvbwcpa.com to learn more about our accounting and auditing, tax and consulting services. Call me to see how we can help you and your business achieve its goals!
